WILL TANNER HAVE TO GO?

THERE ARE QUEER STORIES ABOUT AFFAIRS IN THE PENSION OFFICE.

Open Allegations that George E. Lemar's Clients Are Subjects of Special Cousider ation-The Corporal's Racy Declarations Concerning a Bewitching Treasury Department Widow.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Washington, June 18 .- Corperal Tanner's official head is in danger, says Dame Rumor, and though the gossipy dame is sometimes in error, there seems to be fair ground for her statement regarding the Commissioner of

The fact that Assistant Secretary of the Interior Bussey was in charge at the Pension office a portion of last week, the summary dismissal of Tanner's confidential secretary, George B. Squires, of Brooklyn, and charges of discrimination in favor of clients of George E. Lemon, have lent something of a color to the rumor that President Harrison has asked. or will ask for the resignation of the Pension

Commissioner.

Before his appointment Tanner publicly proclaimed his intention to dip deep into the Tressury surplus and use a lavish Hand in pensioning old soldiers.

He also promised to remove all possible Tressury Squires was the result of his dis-

He certainly has carried out this policy, it is said, so far as Lemon's clients have been concerned.

Lemon is editor of the National Tribune, official organ of the G. A. H.

He claims to have special facilities for pushing claims through Tanner's office, and the fact that he has succeeded in securing the rerating at an advanced figure of many pensions on what is claimed to be the slightest evidence, would seem to bear him out in his claim.

RESPITE FOR LIVERPOOL JACK.

One Charge Falls Through, but He Has to Meet Two Others To-Morrow.

Recorder Smyth to-day, in Chambers, disssed the complaint in the Moran case against John Fitzpatrick, otherwise known as "Liverpool Jack," the kidnapper.

pool Jack," the kidnapper.

The charges were made only on information and belief, and were dismissed with the consent of the District-Atterney.

Meanwhile "Liverpool Jack" is under $5,000 on the two indictments against him, and Recorder Smyth decided to wait until to-morrow at the opening of Part II. of General Sessions before he heard argument on the question of fixing a day for the trial of the prisoner.

Assistant District-Attorney Jerome is anxious that the trial should be set down for as early a date as possible, and will insist that it shall go on within a week. Otherwise, he claims, the ends of justice may be defeated.
